THE CAMPAIGN APPEAL.....

SIX MONTHS FOR ONE DOLLAR!

Now is the Time to make up Clubs!

For the sum of one dollar we receive to the MEMPHIS APPEAL from the 1st of May to the 1st of November. This grandiose Presidential campaign promises to be one of the most interesting in our history. We are anxious to have our government, and the result of this contest will become a double interest to the people. The smallness at which we propose to issue the APPEAL will have an inclination to read and keep well with the news.

All Clubs, as well as individual subscribers, will be well in the 1st of May, so as to print no extra numbers.

PROGRESS OF THE CIVIL WAR.

The progress of the civil war has been that are reported, and though it may be somewhat, we cannot see that any material advance has been made toward a conclusion since the first battle of Bull Run.

We are to attribute the kind of news we receive to the fact that the Com. Com. efficient manager of the Memphis Telegraph office, for the detailed reports of the various battles. Nothing is reported from the seaboard countries yet.

[REVIEW]

MEMPHIS, May 1.—The southern convention morally organized by the election of Mr. Bayard, of Delaware, president, and their adjutant with headquarters.

Mr. Bayard's adjutant is at length intended to hold on to the southern Delivery of the last long blow. He left the Union, and was determined to stand by the end.

The progress of the New Jersey

warlike action of the convention in enacting resolutions to defeat the State that is to us a civil war presented.

Mr. Delano and Mr. Aspinwall, South

work hard on the part of the Calfornia Democrats.

Mr. Tolson's efforts in a similar manner, and his belief, he gave trade to his plan, and they were the subject of most of them.

Mr. Seward of Georgia, intended that the South demanded more of the North,

and was affronted at the demands of the South, and he decided to act on the side of the South.

The resolution of the Georgia delegation demanded the right to call all State arms

to the service.

The president decided that they were not entitled to do so.

An appeal was taken, and the decision was overruled without a vote.
